

City of Marion election results

The City of Marion can announce final results for the 2022 Local Government Elections.

Kris Hanna has been re-elected Mayor making quota with 11,988 first preference votes ahead of candidates Bruce Hull with 4,536 votes and Jaison Midzi with 2,695 votes. There were 19,219 formal ballot papers counted.

Election results can be announced for the following wards:

- Coastal Ward Councillors: Sarah Luscombe and Ian Crossland.
- Mullawirra Ward Councillors: Jason Veliskou and Amar Singh.
- Southern Hills Ward Councillors: Luke Naismith and Jana Mates.
- Warracowie Ward Councillors: Nathan Prior and Matt Taylor.
- Warriparinga Ward Councillors: Renuka Lama and Raelene Telfer.
- Woodlands Ward Councillors: Joseph Masika and Jayne Hoffmann.

“I am truly glad that we have more women on our Council than ever, five Councillors out of 12 are women, and we have a more diverse Council than we have ever had in Marion Council’s history,” Mayor of Marion Kris Hanna said.

“Seven new Councillors means a good blend of fresh ideas and retained corporate knowledge.”

The City of Marion’s new Council Members will be inducted into their positions during a formal ceremony this evening (Friday).

The final results, including votes counted, for all council elections, are published on the ECSA website and on the Local Government Association's website.

ENDS