GENERAL ANALYSIS

On Wednesday, 2nd October 2019, Mayor Hanna submitted a code of conduct complaint against Councillor Hull in relation to a social media post. A copy of the complaint is attached as Appendix 1. The complaint alleges that Councillor Hull breached the following section of the Code of Conduct for Council Members:

Clause 2.2 - Act in a way that generates community trust and confidence in the Council.

Code of Conduct

The Code of Conduct for Council Members (the Code) is in three parts:

- Behaviour which falls under Part 2 of the Code,
- Misconduct which triggers action under Part 3 of the Code, or
- Criminal or corrupt behaviour.

As noted above, Mayor Hanna has specified what section he alleges that breaches have occurred under. A copy of the Code is attached as Appendix 4.

Council Considerations

Pursuant to the Elected Member Code of Conduct Procedure for Investigating Complaints (the Procedure),

Council must determine if this complaint relates to:

- Behaviour which falls under Part 2 of the Code,
- Misconduct which triggers action under Part 3 of the Code, or
- Criminal or corrupt behaviour.

In undertaking the preliminary assessment of a complaint, the Council may have regard to the following considerations:

- whether the complaint is a code of conduct complaint,
- whether the complaint is trivial, frivolous, vexatious or not made in good faith,
- whether the complaint discloses prima facie evidence of a breach of the code,
- whether the complaint raises issues that would be more appropriately dealt with by another agency or body,
- whether there is or was an alternative and satisfactory means of redress available to the complainant in relation to the conduct complained of,
- whether the complaint is one that can be resolved by alternative and appropriate strategies such as, but not limited to, explanation, counselling, training, informal discussion, negotiation or apology,
- whether the issue/s giving rise to the complaint have previously been addressed or resolved,
- whether the conduct complained of forms part of a pattern of conduct,
- whether there were mitigating circumstances giving rise to the conduct complained of,
- the seriousness of the alleged conduct,
- the significance of the conduct or the impact of the conduct for the council,
- how much time has passed since the alleged conduct occurred, or
- such other considerations that the Council considers may be relevant to the assessment of the complaint.

Section 4 of the Procedure provides Council with four options to consider a matter if determine a Part 2 behavioural breach has occurred:

1. Seek to resolve the matter internally,
2. Referral the matter to an independent person of Councils choice for investigation,
3. Referral to the Local Government Governance Panel, or
4. Dismiss the allegation.

Options to resolve this matter:

The questions for Council to consider is:

- has Councillor Hull breached the Code of Conduct due to his behaviour or conduct?
- does Council have enough evidence/information to make a decision on the matter?

If yes:

Council may resolve the matter internally, if it considers it minor in nature, internally with the agreement of both parties.

OR

Council may resolve to refer the matter to the Ombudsman or Office for public Integrity for investigation (if determined to be a Part 3 breach). If this option is progressed, this report and the referral will continue to be confidential until such time as a final report is received.

If no:

Council may resolve to dismiss the matter if Council is of the opinion that the Code of Conduct has not been breached. This dismissal (including the reasoning for dismissal) would be recorded in the minutes. The minutes together with this report may continue to be confidential. The confidentiality should be considered on a case by case basis and take into consideration the view of the subject/s (individual/s) of the complaint.

If unsure:

Council may resolve to forward the Code of Conduct to an independent person for further investigation. If this option is progressed, this report and the referral will continue to be confidential until such time as a final report is received.

OR

Council could refer the complaints to the Local Government Governance Panel. The Panel Manager would conduct an initial assessment and may form a provisional conclusion or else recommend the matter proceed to a full investigation. If this option is progressed, this report and the referral will continue to be confidential until such time as a final report is received.

Findings:

In accordance with Section 5 of the Procedure, a breach of Part 2 of the Code is found, the Council may, by resolution:

- Take no action;
- Pass a censure motion in respect of the Council member;
- Request a public apology, whether written or verbal;

- Request the Council member to attend training on the specific topic found to have been breached;
- Resolve to remove or suspend the Council member from a position within the Council (not including the member's elected position on Council);
- Request the member to repay monies to the Council.

Appeal

In accordance with Section 6 of the Procedure, the Council will not enter any process of appeal in relation to a Part 2 breach of the Code and if the Elected Member is aggrieved by the process or outcome, they may refer the matter to the Ombudsman for review.

Subject: Code of Conduct Cr Hull

Dear Kate
Motion for GC

That Council notes the allegation of breach of the Code of Conduct.

Comment

There is a current controversy regarding the Cove Cobras Football Club. Amanda Rishworth MP, Member for Kingston, wrote a letter dated 28th September 2019 concerning the issue.

The letter was addressed to our CEO with a copy to the Mayor. The Mayor received the letter on the morning of 1st October. Meanwhile, on 29th September the letter had been posted on the Cove Cobras Football Club Facebook page.

On 1st October Cr Hull commented on the post which published the Rishworth letter.

Screenshot attached. He said, "Amazing how I am and Channel 9 about developments on this matter and I am from Council staff. Appalling, simply appalling. Shamefully I have not been provided your letter Amanda Rishworth".

This is a controversy which generated new media and correspondence just about every day for the first week at least after the Council decision was made on 24 September 2019. It would have been unreasonable to expect staff to manage the controversy and also keep all Councillors up-to-date every day. I am advised by staff that, after making the comment on Facebook, Councillor Hull sought an update from staff regarding the issue.

Clause 2.2 of the Code of Conduct requires Councillors to:
"Act in a way that generates community trust and confidence in the Council".

Council may consider that Council Hull has breached the requirement of the Code Of Conduct on this occasion.

28 September 2019

Dear Mr Skull,

In light of City of Marion's recent decision to terminate the Cove Cobras Football Club from the Cove Sports and Social Club, I write to urge the Council to find a solution that enables local residents to play football in their local community.

While I am not privy to the deliberations Council have gone through to determine the termination and notwithstanding the allegations made public are very serious, the decision has left hundreds of football players and club members including juniors and females without a place to train or compete.

This has been distressing for many club members who love playing football in their local club.

I urge the Council to work with club members to ensure the community of Hallett cove and surrounding suburbs have a local space to participate and compete in Australian Rules Football.

Yours sincerely

Elected Member Code of Conduct

Procedure For Investigating Complaints

1. POLICY

- 1.1 The Code of Conduct for Council Members is set by regulation and applies to all Elected Members across local government in South Australia. Depending on the nature of an alleged breach of the Code, a matter may be subject to a Council investigation or an investigation by the Ombudsman or Office of Public Integrity (OPI). This procedure applies when the Council receives a complaint against an Elected Member under the Code of Conduct for Council Members as gazetted on 29 August 2013. A copy of the Code is available on the City of Marion's website www.marion.sa.gov.au

2. ALLEGED BREACH

- 2.1 Breaches of the Code of Conduct may relate to behaviour (in Part 2 of the Code) or misconduct (in Part 3 of the Code). Criminal or corruption matters, which are subject to separate legislation, do not form part of the Code of Conduct for Elected Members but are referred to in the Appendix of the Code of Conduct.
- 2.2 Where an alleged breach occurs the complainant should report the allegation, in writing to the Chief Executive Officer. The allegation should:
  - 2.2.1 Be specific
  - 2.2.2 Provide as much supporting evidence as possible to assist an investigation
  - 2.2.3 Provide the name of the Elected Member who has allegedly breach the Code.
- 2.3 Complainants can, at any time, take the alternative option of lodging the complaint with the Ombudsman or Office of Public Integrity (OPI), which will direct the complaint in accordance with the ICAC Act.
- 2.4 On receipt of a complaint, the CEO will be responsible for advising the Mayor and referring the complaint to Council.
- 2.5 When no allegations have been substantiated, Council will consider the matter in confidence.
- 2.6 The Council will consider the matter, in conjunction with legal advice if required, and determine whether the complaint relates to:
  - 2.6.1 Behavioural which falls under Part 2 of the Code
  - 2.6.2 Misconduct which triggers action under Part 3 of the Code, or
  - 2.6.3 Criminal or Corrupt behaviour.
- 2.7 Complaints relating to misconduct or criminal behaviour must be referred to the appropriate authorities immediately.
- 2.8 As soon as practical after the receipt of an allegation and prior to the complaint being referred to Council, the Mayor will advise the Elected Member who is the subject of the complaint and its substance. If the complaint is about the Mayor, the Deputy Mayor will undertake this function.

- 2.9 A copy of the complaint will be provided to the Elected Member and will also be provided to confidentially Council. This may be done in person, via email and/or a Council report.

  - g) whether the issue/s giving rise to the complaint have previously been addressed or resolved,
  - h) whether the conduct complained of forms part of a pattern of conduct,
  - i) whether there were mitigating circumstances giving rise to the conduct complained of,
  - j) the seriousness of the alleged conduct,
  - k) the significance of the conduct or the impact of the conduct for the council,
  - l) how much time has passed since the alleged conduct occurred, or
  - m) such other considerations that the Council considers may be relevant to the assessment of the complaint.

4. ALLEGED BREACH UNDER PART 2

- 4.1.2 Council may request that the Mayor facilitate a meeting with the complainant and the Elected Member and may seek mediation and conciliation between the parties in an attempt to resolve the matter to the satisfaction of all parties. This may be appropriate, for example, where the complainant is also an Elected Member.

- 4.1.3 The Mayor must ensure that the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness are observed.
- 4.1.4 Where the matter is resolved by the Mayor to the satisfaction of all the parties the matter will be closed and no further action will be taken. - 4.3.2 The matter will be assessed initially by the Panel Manager who will determine the process to be followed and the person who will deal with the matter. The matter may be dismissed if it is frivolous, vexatious, misconceived or lacking in substance.

- 4.3.3 A complaint that is forwarded to the Governance Panel will be assessed by the Panel Manager in the first instance. The Panel Manager will consider the applicable facts from the material provided and may form a provisional conclusion that further investigation is unnecessary, as it would be unlikely to result in a breach finding. In these circumstances, Council will consider the recommendation from the Panel Manager and determine whether to proceed to a full investigation.
- 4.3.4 Where a complaint progresses to an investigation, a report will be prepared by the Panel and will be provided to the Council. The report may recommend to the Council appropriate action in relation to the matter, including the imposition of any of the sanctions available to a Council under clause 2.25 of the Code of Conduct.

4.4 Dismiss the allegation.

- 4.4.1 The Council may choose to dismiss a matter only in the circumstances where it is evident that the complaint is frivolous, vexatious, misconceived or lacking in substance. The Council must provide reasoning for undertaking this action.

Dear Adrian,

If staff had provide me with important updates in a time critical fashion, I would not be as outraged as I am. Any time our CEO appears on TV, we should be advised. ASAP. I should not have to monitor social media to realise that there is information like Amanda's letter to be notified about? It seemed that we were being kept in the dark and I should not have to ask for critical information to be provided to me.

With regards to coffee. Given the Council Election related court case in process where we are now both named, I think it is prudent to say no thanks to coffee unfortunately.

Kind regards

Dear Bruce

Staff have sent me a photo of your post on the Cove Cobras Facebook page (below).

Your public post does not help anything but serve to widen the 'Us and Them' divide that is very evident.

You could have asked for an update on the Cobras matter (we always get back to all of our Council Members as you know when requested) and we had always planned to update you and all your team members at next week's Council meeting and to send out the update that Fiona subsequently sent following the meeting with the club yesterday morning.

I understand that you are unhappy on a few fronts at the moment. I would appreciate a coffee catch up if you are up for it?

NOTICE under Clause 3.10 of the Code of Conduct for Council Members published by the Minister for Planning for the purposes of Section 63 (1) of the Local Government Act 1999.

For the purposes of Clause 3.10 of the Code of Conduct for Council Members adopted for the purposes of Section 63 (1) of the Local Government Act 1999 and published in the Gazette on the day on which this Notice is made, the value of $100 is specified.

Dated 18 August 2013.

JOHN RAU, Deputy Premier, Minister for Planning

Code of Conduct for Council Members

Published by the Minister for Planning for the purposes of Section 63 (1) of the Local Government Act 1999.

This Code of Conduct is to be observed by all Council members.

Council members must comply with the provisions of this Code in carrying out their functions as public officials. It is the personal responsibility of Council members to ensure that they are familiar with, and comply with, the standards in the Code at all times.

PART 1—PRINCIPLES

1. Higher principles—Overarching Statement

This part does not constitute separate enforceable standards of conduct.

Council members in South Australia have a commitment to serve the best interests of the people within the community they represent and to discharge their duties conscientiously, to the best of their ability, and for public, not private, benefit at all times.

Council members will work together constructively as a Council and will uphold the values of honesty, integrity, accountability and transparency, and in turn, foster community confidence and trust in Local Government.

As representatives of open, responsive and accountable government, Council members are committed to considering all relevant information and opinions, giving each due weight, in line with the Council's community consultation obligations.

In the performance of their role, Council members will take account of the diverse current and future needs of the local community in decision-making, provide leadership and promote the interests of the Council.

Council members will make every endeavour to ensure that they have current knowledge of both statutory requirements and best practice relevant to their position. All Councils are expected to provide training and education opportunities that will assist members to meet their responsibilities under the Local Government Act 1999.

Council members will comply with all legislative requirements of their role and abide by this Code of Conduct.

PART 2—BEHAVIOURAL CODE

2. Behavioural Code

In line with 'Part 1—Higher Principles' of this Code, the following behaviour is considered essential to upholding the principles of good governance in Councils.

This Part is for the management of the conduct of Council members that does not meet the reasonable community expectations of the conduct of Council members. It deals with conduct that does not, and is not likely to, constitute a breach of Part 3—Misconduct or criminal matters such as those contained in the Appendix to this document.

Robust debate within Councils that is conducted in a respectful manner is not a breach of this Part.

It is intended that each Council will adopt a process for the handling of alleged breaches of this Part. This process will be reviewed within 12 months of a general Local Government election.

Council members must:

General behaviour

- 2.1 Show commitment and discharge duties conscientiously.
- 2.2 Act in a way that generates community trust and confidence in the Council.
- 2.3 Act in a reasonable, just, respectful and non-discriminatory way when dealing with people.
- 2.4 Show respect for others if making comments publicly.
- 2.5 Ensure that personal comments to the media or other public comments, on Council decisions and other matters, clearly indicate that it is a private view, and not that of the Council.
